

September 28th, 2012 1/2 Day Workshop

Next Generation Organizations: 9 Key Traits (Staying Relevant & Remaining Viable)

Today's nonprofits face a whole new set of challenges stemming from external demands and internal dynamics that make remaining viable and relevant difficult. These changes demand that we manage our organizations in profoundly different ways than we have in the past: leading differently, restructuring, and adapting. Join, Music in the Mountains Executive Director, Cristine Kelly at this workshop which will highlight successful new approaches that "the next generation nonprofit organization" can use to get ahead of the curve. Based on CompassPoint's Senior Project Director, Marla Cornelius' co-authored study, Ready to Lead? Next Generation Leaders Speak Out.

Presenter:	Cristine Kelly, Executive Director, Music in the Mountains
Suggested Participants:	Executive Directors and other key staff, Board Chairs and members.
Date and Schedule:	Friday, September 28 th 2012 Registration: 8:00 a.m. (registration deadline - 9/24) Workshop: 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Location:	United Methodist Church, Wesley Hall 236 South Church Street, Grass Valley
Workshop Fee:	$50 CNL members, $60 non-members Fee includes continental breakfast